OPEN-ENDED QUESTION AND ANSWER: (Must be a question from the handout--Use each question once!)

Q5. Essay # 6 Danielle learned from Jake never to give up and keep trying. For example, when Danielle and Jake were stuck because of the ice on the rocks, Jake kept on trying to figure out a way to get past it. Another example is, when Danielle and Jake reached the summit and couldn't find the weather station, he kept looking for it when Danielle broke down in tears. A third example is, Danielle doubted Jake and his idea of climbing Mount Remington but they still made it. In the book it seems like after Jake gave a lecture about how they can not give up and how their parents need them, Danielle ended up finishing the task that Jake said. For example, she chiseled the ice off the rocks so they could get past, she found the station, and she helped Jake climb to the summit with her skills. That is what Danielle learned from Jake.
