

Wait Till Helen Comes

Molly, Michael and their Mom moved into a house with their mom's new husband and his daughter Heather. Heather hated the whole family except her dad.

Molly and Heather were taking a walk along the creek when they saw a grave yard.

Heather ran in and started playing in it but Molly stood behind the gate nervously. Every day since then Heather went back to play at the graveyard.

One day Molly followed Heather and saw she was talking to someone at the graveyard. Molly listened and found out it was a ghost and it's name was Helen.

The next night Molly followed Heather to the pond and heard the voice of Helen talking Heather into the pond so they could be together forever. Heather walked into the old creepy pond and closed her eyes.

Molly jumped out of her hiding spot, ran into the pond and grabbed Heather's hand.

Molly saved Heather and Helen went away. Heather did not want to go with Helen anymore.

Heather loved Molly for saving her and the whole family loved each other.
