

Zain

Coroline from the book Coroline changed by being more thankful and cooperating with her parents. In the beginning she was very selfish. She kept bothering her parents while they were working. She would not eat her dad's recipes and that made him feel sad.

She was not focused on what she needed to get from the store and asked her mom for green gloves.

In the middle she became less selfish. She cared about getting back to her parents. She wanted to save her parents from her other mother. She wanted to save the children behind the mirror souls. She still threw the cat at the other mother's face without telling the cat her plan.

She was very considerate at the end of the book. She ate her dad's recipes. She spent time with her parents instead of exploring. Coroline learned how to be more considerate and less selfish.

Name Zan

Title of book Coraline

Write the question: _____

Topic sentence: Answers the question in a statement

Coraline from the book Coraline changed by being more thankful to her parents and understanding them.

Example or reason #1

(Write example here)

Beginning

Example or reason #2

(Write example here)

Middle

Example or reason #3

(Write example here)

End

Supporting details from your book

(What's your proof?)

1. She kept bothering her parents.

2. She would not eat her dad's recipes.

3. She was not focused on what she needed from the stone and she asked her mom for green gloves

Supporting details from your book

(What's your proof?)

1. In the middle she became less selfish.

2. She cared about getting back to her parents.

3. She needed to save her parents.

She needed to save the other children's souls.

Supporting details from your book

(What's your proof?)

1. She was very considerate at the end.

2. She ate her dad's recipes.

3. She spent time with her parents instead of exploring

Concluding sentence: Similar to topic sentence but must be worded differently

Coraline learned how to be more considerate and less selfish