

The Golden Goblet Book Trailer Class Project

5th Grade Language Arts - Ms. Stringfellow

We will be producing a book trailer for The Golden Goblet as a class project. Everyone will be assigned a production role and may also act in the film if they wish. The final project will be shared with the KCD community and with other schools via SchoolTube and other educational websites.

Some work for this project will need to be done outside of class time. Below are a list of the production roles with brief job descriptions.

Filming Roles

Executive Producer	Ms. Stringfellow ; in charge of production and makes all final decisions
Director	Oversees work of all groups and makes final decisions along with the Executive Producer
Scriptwriter(s) and Storyboard Artist(s)	Write a 2 minute script that will be used as the on-screen titles of the movie; Plan the shots that will communicate the script; determine locations (KCD and stock images/video)
Editor(s)	Proofread for script for clarity and edit spelling and grammar; type citation page for stock footage used
Videographer(s)	Shoot video of actors on location
Location Researcher(s)	Find stock pictures and video of landscapes and objects related to Egypt required by storyboard
Actors	Follow instructions from the Director in performing scenes
Musical Director(s)	Responsible for music and sound effects used in the trailer
Art Director/Costume Designer/Prop Master	Responsible for planning and procuring (with help) any costumes or props that will be used
Video Production Crew	Pull together elements in iMovie and create final product

