OPEN-ENDED QUESTION AND ANSWER: (Must be a question from the handout--Use each question once!)

Q5. Essay # The cottage is very special to Mandy for many reasons. Mandy is the person whose thoughts and curiosity made her climb the wall and find the cottage. In the early part of the book it said Mandy always had a fascination for the large stone wall. She could no longer stand the urge inside of her telling her to climb the wall, so she did. When she got to the other side she wandered around until she found the cottage. Mandy took care of the little house. She bought flowers using her own money, and planted them to make the cottage entrance look beautiful. She bought scissor and hand cut the long grass. She had to sneak James garden shears away and later pay for the broken ones. She returned to the little cottage in any condition. When the children go for their once a year trip to the sea, Mandy played sick and visited the cottage. She had to risk herself being caught at any time. She got very sick and had to stay in bed for a very long time. As you can see Mandy has many reasons to love and cherish this cottage. THE END
